Remarkable Publishing Company Publishes Lizzy Iweala's New Book, The Dynamics of A Breakthrough Prayer

“And from the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force” (Matthew 11:12). Therefore, believers are encouraged to position themselves aggressively in the arena of prayer and take back everything the enemy has stolen from them. The Bible encourages us to pray without ceasing. Christ, prior to His departure, encouraged the church to “occupy till I come.” We can effectively occupy only through the power of prayer.

Prayer is the key to our “breakthrough.” Indeed, it is the MASTER KEY that opens every stubborn door.

A prayerless Christian can be likened to a barking lion without teeth and vulnerable to the attacks of the enemy.

On the other hand, a prayerful Christian is considered a victorious soldier, always occupying strategic positions in the spiritual realm, stationed to ward off any incoming fiery darts from the camp of the enemy. Such a person is “qualified” to be God’s “battle-axe” for the end-time.

My prayer is that this book will be a source of encouragement and a wake-up call compelling us to rise up to an effective prayer life.
